MORSE Month 2020

Week 1: Operating Activity: Golden Rules Facilitator: team leader, Supervisor, Trainer or Manager Who can take part: anyone and everyone! Where can this take place: anywhere Time: five minutes

Additional resources: smart device with video recording capability

In this activity we ask what the golden rules mean to colleagues and why.

Objectives

Gain better knowledge of what's important, why and embed the golden rules

How do I facilitate this activity?

- Ask your team members which of the golden rules mean the most to them, and why
- Film them as they answer
- Upload your film to the Golden Rules channel on Microsoft Teams

Example Golden Rules conversation:

Manager (Bob): Hey Tony, can I record you on my smartphone for MORSE month?

Tony: What's this? Why?

Bob: During MORSE month we are asking everyone to tell us which of the golden rules mean the most to them and why?

Tony: Ok but why the smartphone?

Bob: It would be good to record and share what you think – it might help other people to understand the rules.

Tony: Ok let's do this.

Bob: Cool thanks Tony. So here goes...which of the golden rules means the most to you?

Tony: That's easy, 'Never approach an aircraft until it is safe to do so'

Bob: Ok thanks Tony, why was it easy to pick rule 7 'Never approach an aircraft until it is safe to do so'

Tony: Because I saw Ray blown over onto the ground last year and it was terrible, he really hurt himself and broke his leq!

Bob: Of course, I knew you would pick that one Tony, I was involved in the investigation. I'm so glad that Ray recovered from his leg injury as it could have been far worse. Anything you want to add?

Tony: Yeah, the rules are there to keep us safe right, when we are on the ramp it's not a time for fooling around. Things get serious, people's lives could be at risk if we don't follow the rules, we could get hurt.

Bob: Too true Tony, thanks for this I really appreciate your time.
